HARRY SHANNON'S GOOD RACE.

The Ingalls' Park card was rather light yesterday. The afternoon was a bit chilly, and the crowd not as large as usual. Three favorites scored and the ring did not lay up anything.

A clever bit of racing came out of the fourth event, a mile condition affair. Harry Shannon, Morte Fosse, Ben Waddell and Springtime were the only starters. Harry Shannon, at the weight, seemed to be the best thing of the day. The Harry O'Fallon gelding opened at 7 to 10, but was backed almost off the boards. He won chiefly through Master Caywood's strong finish and an error of judgment on the part of Penny, who rode Morte Fosse.

The four contestants raced in close order to the far turn, when Harry Shannon drew clear and at the head of the stretch seemed to be going rather easily. Caywood was cautious, however, and took no chances with him. About the eighth pole Penny went to work on Morte Fosse, and under severe punishment from the whip the Ezell horse responded gamely. At the sixteenth pole he was almost on equal terms with Harry Shannon. Here it was that Penny made the mistake of putting his whip away. When he did, Morte Fosse began to stop, and before Penny could get the rod going again, the race was over and Harry Shannon had won it. Morte Fosse is a hard horse to ride and Penny handled him exceedingly well, and the mistake he made would have happened to any rider.

Another pretty finish came out of the first race. Fourteen cheap ones started and five were all in a heap at the wire. Harry B, a long shot, ridden by Louis Ezell's California feather weight H. Brown, won in the last jump by a mere nose from Belle of Niles.

J. E. Cushing's Jim Gore—Piquante colt, Knowles, won the two-year-old race in a gallop and very fast time. Dr. Sheppard cantered home with his race, and Warren Point, at a long price, easily disposed of Suisun in the last race.

Cushing's Boundless youngster, Bounding, is very sick.

The sensational two-year-old, Peter McCue, arrived at the track from St. Louis. His owners deny the story about the colt's age circulated by Dr. Talbert, and he will be allowed to race here.

The Ryan party took nearly $4000 out of the foreign book over the win of Miss Al Farrow at St. Louis.
